IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING THIS CLAIM

(1) The Plaintiff or the Defendant may represent themselves individually or be represented by an attorney. A Small Claims Manual is available at the Clerk's or the Court's office (or at the website www.tippecanoe.in.gov). The Plaintiff and Defendant should bring to trial all witnesses, documents, exhibits and evidence in their possession or under their control concerning this claim. Many times, the Court will not conduct the trial or hear a contested case at the first scheduled hearing date unless time permits and both parties are prepared to proceed at that time.

(2) A default judgment may be entered against the Defendant if he or she fails to appear for the first scheduled hearing date or any subsequent trial date. If the Plaintiff fails to appear, the case will be dismissed (but may be refiled).

(3) If the Defendant does not dispute the Plaintiff's claim, the Defendant may still appear to allow the Court to establish the method for paying the judgment.

(4) Any request for a continuance of a first scheduled hearing or any trial date by either party should be filed with the Court at least seven (7) days before the court date. Forms to request a continuance are available online or at the Clerk's or Court's office. The party requesting the continuance must notify the other party of the request. Any request for a continuance will not be considered unless in writing and served on the other party.

(5) The Defendant must file any counterclaim with the Clerk to allow enough time for the claim to be mailed and received by the Plaintiff at least seven (7) days before the first scheduled hearing. The Defendant does not waive a possible claim against the Plaintiff by not filing a counterclaim at the same time as the original claim filed by the Plaintiff. But the Defendant does waive any amount of the counterclaim over the jurisdictional limit of $6,000 by filing a counterclaim. Forms to file a counterclaim are available at the Clerk's or Court's office or on the website.

(6) If a settlement of this claim is made out of Court, it should be in writing and signed by both parties. Forms to file an Agreed Judgment are available at the Clerk's or Court's office or on the website. The Agreed Judgment shall be filed with the Court, be entered in the Small Claims Docket and have the same effect as a judgment of the Court.

(7) The filing of a Small Claim waives the Plaintiff's right to a trial by jury. The Defendant may make a demand for a trial by jury in writing no later than ten (10) days following service of this Notice of Claim, on accordance with I.C. 33-29-2-7. Forms to file a jury demand are available at the Clerk's or Court's office or on the website. If a jury trial demand has been granted, it may not be withdrawn without agreement by all parties. All parties should then obtain attorneys. The Defendant must pay a $70 fee at the Clerk's Office within ten (10) days after the jury trial demand has been granted, otherwise, the Defendant gives up the right to a jury trial.

(8) Any exhibits or documents you may offer at trial will be retained by the Court for at least 45 days and no more than 120 days after any hearing that result in a judgment. You may make arrangements to pick up your exhibits and documents any time 45 days after judgment has been entered. If an appeal is filed, these exhibits will remain permanently with the Court. You will receive no further notices regarding your evidence.
