

Gangs by Affiliation

- Chicago Based¹ - These gangs emerged in the early 1960's and have two primary alliances: People Nation and Folk Nation. The People Nation and Folk Nation are not gangs - they are alliances under which gangs are aligned. Most notable gangs include:
 - People Nation Sets
 - Black P-Stone
 - Latin Kings
 - Vice lords
 - Brown Pride Locos
 - Four Corner Hustlers
 - Folk Nation Sets
 - Black Gangster Disciples
 - Black Disciples
 - Gangster Disciples
 - La Raza
 - Latin Disciples
 - Maniac Latin Disciples
 - Spanish Gangsters
 - Two Sixers
- L.A. Based² - The Los Angeles (LA) based Bloods and Crips are probably the most widely recognized gangs in America due to the media exposure received in the 1980's. These groups have migrated throughout the country and are seen in most states and their prison populations. There are literally hundreds of sets or individual gangs under the main Blood and Crip names. The Mexican Mafia, a prison gang known for smuggling meth and meth sales, controls the Sureños, "Southerners". The Norteños (Spanish: for "Northerners"), are a coalition of partially Latino gangs and affiliated with the prison gang, Nuestra Familia (Our Family).
 - Bloods
 - Crips
 - Sureños
 - Nortenos
 - MS-13
- Prison Gangs - There are six major prison gangs that are recognized nationally for their participation in organized crime and violence.
 - Neta
 - Aryan Brotherhood
 - Black Guerrilla Family
 - Mexican Mafia
 - La Nuestra Familia
