

Indiana MPO Conference
October 28, 2021, 9:00 AM to 3:30 PM EDT
Lafayette, Indiana (held virtually)

-AGENDA-

9:00 AM

Welcome

David Hittle, Executive Director, Lafayette MPO and Area Plan Commission-Tippecanoe County

9:10 AM

An Update from Washington on Transportation Reauthorization and Infrastructure Spending

Erich Zimmerman, Deputy Director, National Association of Regional Councils (NARC)

10:15 AM

Temporary Pedestrian Work Zones: Principles, Common Problems and Best Practices

Kenneth Woodruff, Civil Rights Program Manager, Federal Highway Administration – Indiana Division

11:00 AM

Division Update, Questions & Answers

Jermaine R. Hannon, Division Administrator, Federal Highway Administration – Indiana Division

11:45 AM - 1:00 PM (Lunch Program)

Climate and the MTP: A Practical Conversation

Tim Stroshine, Doug Poad, Aria Staiger, Maureen McNamara, Michael Thompson

1:00 PM

The Suburban Experiment – How it Started... How it's Going

Daniel Herriges, Co-Founder and Senior Editor, Strong Towns

2:30 PM

Implications of Climate Change for Metropolitan Planning: What's new in 2021?

Jeffrey S. Dukes, Professor of Forestry & Natural Resources, Purdue University; Director, Purdue Climate Change Research Center; Belcher Chair for Environmental Sustainability

3:30 PM

Conference Wrap-Up